

10 Days of Prayer St. Louis Location Descriptions

Monday, September 30 – Friday, October 3

A prayer room will be set up at 920 N Warson Road from 9:00 am-2:00 pm Monday, September 30th - Wednesday October 3rd. This prayer room serves to prepare our hearts to be a city that will 'stop' to welcome the King, as a quiet, contemplative place for personal prayer and worship. You may come and go as you please during these hours. Hosted by St. Paul's Evangelical Church.

Day 1: Friday, October 4

Morning: 9:00 am -11:00 am

Fearing for his life, Pastor Worku Geremew fled his homeland Ethiopia as a refugee to the United States. He now ministers to refugees as pastor of 'The Well Community Church' on South Grand Boulevard in South City. He also has been ministering to the community through job training, employment services, furniture & clothing ministry and much more with 'Rise Together Ministries' (<http://risetogetherministries.org>), since 2006.

Pastor Worku is excited to have you join his team of volunteers and staff at their ministry site in their resale store at 3801 A S. Grand to pray from 9.00 am-11.00 am for the needs of the city.

Evening: 6:30 pm

Pastor David Godbout is passionate about teaming up with other churches in the area to pray, worship and seek God's face. He pastors Novation church (<https://novationchurch.com>); a community of people in South City St. Louis who share the common vision of developing a stronger sense of family within the neighborhoods of their community.

Pastor David is excited to have you join him and his neighboring churches at the former Melvin Theatre (built in 1914) on 2912 Chippewa Street in South city at 6.30 p.m. for community prayer and worship. You are invited to return for their monthly community prayer and worship meeting the first Friday of each month at 7:00 pm through December 2019.

Day 2: Saturday, October 5

Morning: 9:00 am-12:00 pm

Kimm Gaines has been leading prayer events called 'Speak to the City' (www.speaktothecity.com) across the St. Louis Metro area. Growing up in St. Louis, she believes in the power of the spoken Word of God, desiring to speak out prayers that are directly taken from God's Word, prayers that are effective in leading us to think like God does and bring forth His Purposes for the city.

Kimm is excited to have you join her at gateway:61 (www.gateway61.org) church from 9:00 am-12:00 pm in a time of dynamic worship, a brief teaching by the host pastor John Kramer and to pray and speak Scripture-based prayer over the city of St. Louis. The morning will end with a time of words of declaration.

10 Days of Prayer St. Louis Location Descriptions

Evening: 4:00 pm

Pastor Ryan Hart planted Kingdom church (www.kingdomchurchstl.com) just over a year ago; a church passionate about the presence of God, believing God for revival in our lives, families, city, and region. They value the presence of God, friendships, worship, healings, prophetic ministry, impartation, and teaching on life in Kingdom of God.

Pastors Ryan Hart and Kurt Wilson are excited to have you join them for an hour of intercessory prayer on the patio of Crave Coffee House at 3500 Caroline Street. If inclement weather, the prayer will move indoors.

Day 3: Sunday, October 6

Afternoon: 3:00 pm-5:00 pm

Pastors Ken & Beverly Jenkins desire to reach the city with the vision to turn a former strip mall into a location for their church and a center where people are trained for jobs, entrepreneurship is fostered and long-term community changes take place. Ken serves on the international board of Jobs for Life and pastors Refuge and Restoration Church (www.refugeandrestoration.org); a cell church whose mission is to reach as many of the lost as they possibly can.

Pastor Ken and his team are excited to have you join them at their temporary church location at Agape Fellowship Center, 1065 Mullanphy Road, for a time of prayer for our city from 3:00 pm – 5:00 pm.

Day 4: Monday, October 7

Afternoon: 3:30 pm-4:30 pm

Did you know the largest Bosnian American communities in the U.S. are in St. Louis – located in Bevo Mill's "Little Bosnia"? Plant Midwest (www.plantmidwest.org) is a Gospel-centered, Holy Spirit-dependent prayer movement focused on church planting, led by church planters, that are hosting a 2-day conference with Bosnian mission leaders from around the world.

Pastor Darren Casper and his team are excited to have you join them for a prayer walk in the Bevo Mill area. Bring your walking shoes as we meet at Oasis International (www.oasis4refugees.org), 5035 Gravois, at 3:30 pm for a prayer walk from that location that will last until 4:30 pm.

Evening: 7:00 pm-9:00 pm

SLU Theology Professor Michael McClymond has spent decades serving to foster unity in the Body of Christ in prayer through interdenominational prayer meetings. Some of this built on the momentum of the Global Day of Prayer, in which thousands of Christians came together to pray in St. Louis in the early 2000's.

Michael and his team are excited to have you join them for Global Move of Prayer. Each month Christians from many congregations and ministries throughout the area participate and help to lead this prayer gathering for citywide concerns. Global Move of Prayer meets at Memorial Presbyterian Church, 201 S. Skinker Blvd. All are welcome each first Monday of the month from 7:00 pm-9:00 pm (with the exception of Labor Day).

10 Days of Prayer St. Louis Location Descriptions

Day 5: Tuesday, October 8

Morning: 9:00 am-10:00 am

Zion city church (www.zcitychurch.net) is a multi-racial church. It is a place where all people are welcomed. Although a predominately neighborhood church, they are not only a light in Dutchtown, but support missions around the world. You are welcome to continue to pray every Tuesday morning from 9:00 am -10:00 am at Zion City after today's meeting.

Pastor Rick is looking forward to joining the chorus for revival with you, and invites you to join him for their Tuesday prayer meeting from 9:00 am-10:00 am at Zion City Church, 3961 Iowa Street.

Morning 9:00 am–10.30 am & Evening 7:00 pm-8:30 pm

Jim Stern pastors Destiny church (www.destinychurch.org); a church that exist to grow, pray and serve together - a church where you won't be met with shame, guilt, or condemnation, but a place where you'll find the grace, mercy, and forgiveness of Jesus. Destiny believes in the power of prayer, having prayed every Tuesday morning and late afternoon in their Prayer Room for many years.

Pastor Jim and his team are excited to have you join them at their two Tuesday prayer services at 1809 des Peres Road for a time of prayer, intercession and worship. 10 Days also thanks Pastor Jim for the work he put into the 10 Days of Prayer guide!

Morning: 10:30 am–12:00 pm; prayer walk 12:00 pm-1:30 pm

New City Fellowship (www.newcity.org) is committed to being a church where all the nations God has placed within the St. Louis community are welcomed to experience the reconciling love of God in Jesus Christ. Through 'Restore St. Louis' (www.restorestlouis.org) they partner with other churches to provide opportunities to manifest God's love in the city of St. Louis to widows, orphans, immigrants, refugees and the poor.

Pastor Andrew Stern and the New City staff are excited to welcome you to their weekly prayer gathering at 1482 Hodiament Avenue from 10:30 am–12:00 pm. After the prayer time you can join them for a prayer walk in the neighborhood from 12:00 pm-1:30 pm, possibly visiting and praying over areas of recent violence.

Evening: 6:00 pm–7:00 pm

Pastor Jake Rosen and Pastor Joshua Clutterham serve Clayton Community Church (www.claytoncommunitychurch.com), a church committed to spread the good news that God has come to save us, and His name is Jesus, Yeshua, our Messiah. Trusting in the sufficiency of His death and resurrection is the only way to have eternal life, a relationship with the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob – sealed in heaven forever. Ever since the incidents in Ferguson five years ago, a group of faithful believers have met together weekly to pray for St. Louis.

Pastor Jake and his intercessors are excited to have you join them at their weekly Tuesday 6:00 pm prayer meeting at 2501 Rockford Avenue.

10 Days of Prayer St. Louis Location Descriptions

Day 6: Wednesday, October 9:

Evening: 7:00 pm

Bishop Floyd Williams encountered God's Powerful Saving Grace in the middle of his life. Radically delivered from a life of addiction, violence and a broken marriage he started sharing God's Message of Hope with those around him. Today Bishop Williams pastors End Times Christian Assembly (www.facebook.com/ETCAminitries), reaching out to their community in Gospel proclamation, food pantry and other means.

Bishop Williams is excited to have you join him and his church family for a 7:00 pm prayer service at 4723 Martin Luther King Drive.

Day 7: Thursday, October 10

Morning: 9:00 am-11:00 am

Pastor Todd Gentlemen and Willie Johnson, director of outreach, serve with Apostles Church (www.apostlesstl.com) in North City. Their community center is a safe haven and learning environment for many youths that come from troubled homes, sharing the Gospel in word and deed through sports, mentoring, clubs, bible studies and much more.

Willie Johnson is excited to have you join him for a prayer walk in the neighborhood from 9:00-11:00 am. We will be praying on their street corner with signs of hope and Christ's love, and invite those who pass by to join us in prayer!

Afternoon: 12:00 pm-2:00 pm

Grace church (www.gracestl.org) is a community of people from all walks of life who have been impacted by the love of Jesus. Passionate about loving God and loving others in return they have actively engaged in missions in the St. Louis Metro community and have set aside time for prayer each Thursday.

Pastor Ron Tucker, Wes Martin and their team are excited to welcome you at their Thursday prayer, worship and intercession service from 12:00-2:00 pm at 2695 Creve Coeur Mill Road.

Evening: 7:00 pm-8:30 pm

Saint Paul's Evangelical Church (www.stpaulsefree.org) has been a supporter of the 10 Days of Prayer movement in St. Louis since 2005, when the Ministry House at 920 N Warson was converted into a prayer room. Jonathan Friz, the Founder of 10 Days, grew up at St. Paul's. Marco van Raalten, the St. Louis Coordinator for 10 Days, was commissioned as their City Missionary in 2018. By God's grace, the 10 Days Movement has grown to the point where this fall, over 60 cities around the nation and world are involved. Andrew Seley, the Lead Pastor, and Mark Friz, the Pastor of Congregational Care, both have a passion for prayer and unity among believers in our 2.8 million Metropolitan Area. Pastors Andrew, Mark and Marco are excited to have you join them for a Thursday interdenominational prayer and worship meeting at 7:00 pm at 9801 Olive Boulevard.

10 Days of Prayer St. Louis Location Descriptions

Day 8: Friday, October 11

Evening: 7:00 pm-9:00 pm+

One City/Won City (www.facebook.com/OneCity/WonCity) is a dynamic, deepening collaboration between Christian churches and ministries in the greater St. Louis region, in response to Jesus' prayer that "that they may all be one" (John 17:21). It seeks to accelerate strategic collaboration for the spiritual and social wellbeing of our region, by promoting Christian unity across racial, geographical and theological diversities.

The One City team is excited to extend an invitation to join their quarterly 'Nights of Worship' prayer meetings for the St. Louis Metro Region at the Holiday Inn, 811 N 9th St. Free parking will be provided for the first 100 vehicles, and discounted parking of $5 after that at the C-9 parking garage (please bring your garage tickets with you to receive the discounted rate).

Worship/music, prayers for personal, church and community reconciliation, an opportunity to receive communion as your tradition allows, and a testimony of God's work in two Ferguson churches are planned from 7:00 pm-9:00 pm. From 9:00 pm-10:00 pm will be an extended period of worship for those that would like to continue worshipping God in music. At 9:00 pm there will also be an opportunity to receive personal prayer from a prayer team.

Day 9: Saturday, October 12

Morning: 9:00 am – 1:00 pm Conference and Prayer

The pastoral fellowship of St. Louis (<https://www.facebook.com/pfellowship/>) founded by Bishop Phil Brownlee and Dr. Mike Higgins is a fellowship of about 60 churches and 30 organizations of diverse denominations, cultures and race who love Christ and work together to bring change, racial reconciliation and advancement to the St. Louis metro area.

Bishop Brownlee and Pastor Higgins are excited to invite you to join them for their annual conference to be held at the Salvation Army building on 2740 Arsenal Street. There is no cost for the conference and lunch following.

Agenda

- Teaching on racial reconciliation by a variety of area pastors
- Prayer for reconciliation
- Teaching on the ministry of helping/servanthood
- Prayer for those called to the ministry of helping/servanthood
- Lunch

The Pastoral Fellowship of St. Louis invites all metro area pastors and ministry leaders to attend their monthly meeting and breakfast at 8:30am on the second Saturday of the month at 3514 Oregon.

10 Days of Prayer St. Louis Location Descriptions

Day 10: Sunday, October 14

Afternoon: 1:30 pm

After the shooting of Michael Brown, B.K. Eason, an African American church leader in Florissant sought to unite a divided community by visiting fellow pastors in the Hazelwood/Florissant area. Since then, a group of pastors representing 10-15 churches in the North St. Louis County area have been meeting monthly for five years. Their annual 'Unity Sunday' in which the pastors do a pulpit swap in their morning services, followed by a joint service that afternoon, is a clear picture of the beautiful thing God is doing in this area.

The North County Pastors (<https://www.facebook.com/nocopastors/>) are excited to invite you to join them in their annual Unity Sunday at Chatham Bible Church, 6375 Howdershell Road. This service will also mark the closing event of 10 Days of Prayer.